

Nai Supporting Open Media in Afghanistan

Success Story

نی حمایت کننده رسانه های آزاد افغانستان
Nai Supporting Open Media in Afghanistan

Nai Graduate Club

NGC is a club all members share their work, exchange ideas, experiences, reporting advice and discuss the critical journalist's issues. It is also doing some benefit activities to save and aware the people. Environment preservation photo gallery in Pen Association is a live example.

A photo exhibition focused on Kabul environment was held by Nai Graduated Club on June 7th 2012. The exhibition was held at Pen Afghanistan with the assistance of Youths in Action, Green Club, Khat Now, Seelha, Peace and Development, Green Thinker, Green Wave, youths Union Organizations and Salam Watandar Radio. At the exhibition more than 30 photos focusing on Kabul environment were shown. The exhibition showed how Kabul environment is damaging health of its citizens. Photos told stories of Kabul dusty atmosphere a hospital yard and a young lady works field.

The exhibition was opened officially by Kabul Mayor Deputy and Nai Graduated Club members. At the opening, Kabul Mayor Deputy spoke and said; "I am very happy that I see a graduate club is fulfilling its obligation and contributing to the process of working for Kabul environment". He also asked Nai Graduate Club members to help the Municipality through conducting awareness campaigns for public on environment. Fahim Seediqi, NGC facilitator also spoke on the opening and said; "all those photos show how Kabul environment is badly damaged, I am sure if we, journalists and youth work together, we will cope the problem."

40 (12w) Nai Graduated Club members participated to the exhibition. Shabnam Shahzad, a participant expresses her idea of the exhibition this way: "I think it is a good opportunity for us; journalists and youth to take part on public related issues. We can show ourselves and indeed will be motivated to work more." She at the end thanked Nai for giving the opportunity to her to be a part of this campaign.

The exhibition was opened for 5 days and was officially closed through distributing appreciation letters to 5 photographers Mariyam Khamosh, Najia Ahmadi, Nikzad, Hasib Warzi and Khalil by Nai Graduated Club.